E. During the last 12 months, the station employment unit engaged in the following (menu option) initiatives (provide full details, including an explanation if no such initiatives were conducted during the period involved):

Prong 3 Menu Option

- 1. October 2006, Mark (Elliott) Hansell attended the MAFB Career Fair held in Lansing, MI. He set up a display and handed out information on employment opportunities that may be available at NBI stations to interested Fair attendees.
- 2. 11/10/06, Ms. Ann Varga, a student at North Central Michigan College, conducted a ½ day Job Shadow with Mark (Elliott) Hansell, WFCX/WFDX Program Director. Mark answered many questions for her as they pertained to her college courses and career choices.

3. 3. January 2007 – General Manager Charlie Ferguson gave a presentation to a Marigold Women in Business luncheon. The topic of the presentation was selling for Women, and included an invitation for attendees to stop at the WSRT Northern Broadcast, Inc display and get information on employment opportunities at the company. There were 65 people in attendance at the luncheon.

While not completed during the term covered in this report, WKLT/WKLZ started a unique Employment Opportunity Outreach on 4/21/07 called “American Anchor.” The station invited anyone interested to apply and audition to become the morning Newsperson on WKLT. The results of this promotion will be reported on the 2007 – 2008 EEO Prong 3 Menu.
